Corrup[redacted]ice Charge[redacted] not Pr[redacted]Holds Cou[redacted]

In two separate judgments the Supreme Court has upheld the election ... preferred by ... Kerala High Court setting aside their election to the State Assembly.

Dealing with this aspect of the case, the Supreme Court, after scrutiny of records, set aside the High Court's finding against Mr. Thomas and said that "there is no satisfactory evidence to prove that Mr. Joseph Thomas spoke anything at the meeting for furtherance of the appellant's (Mr. Mani's) electoral prospects and that he (Mr. Thomas) went there and spoke at his (Mr. Mani's) instance."

Mr. Justice Shinghal further said that "the trial court (High Court) was not justified in reaching the conclusion that Mr. Joseph Thomas ... in the course of his ..."

"Similarly," the court further held, "there is no reliable evidence to show that the appellant had any knowledge or had given prior consent to the publication of a cartoon" (which had the effect of attempting or promoting a feeling of enmity and hatred between two classes of citizens) in the issue of "Chandrika," (a language daily of the Muslim League published from Calicut), of which the appellant was "the Chief Editor" and not "Editor").

The Supreme Court rejected the contention that as "Chief Editor" of the daily the appellant should be deemed to have "constructive knowledge" of various articles, speeches and cartoons in connection with this election, published in the daily. According to the petitioner, the publication ... constituted corrupt practice within the meaning of the ... provision of the R.P. Act ... promoting or attempting to promote ... hatred between different classes of citizens.

Denying this allegation, the appellant's case was that he did not function as the "Editor" of the newspaper and he was not in any way connected with the editorial work of the daily. It was also his plea that he had nothing to do with the control or selection of matter ... of actual editorial work of the daily and that he was described as "Chief Editor" only ...

Former Iranian Minister Arrested

TEHERAN, Sept. 12.

Iranian Prime Minister Jaafar Sharif Emami told the Iranian Senate on Monday that the Government would lift martial law and the curfew in Teheran and 11 other major cities when the situation calmed down.

He said leftists and Islamic demonstrators last Friday planned to occupy "sensitive" and strategic positions of the capital with the aim of overthrowing the regime.

The Prime Minister guaranteed the public "absolute freedom" provided the Opposition respected the Constitution and did not use the right to insult the monarchy or the Shah.

The Government started a widespread crackdown on corrupt officials of the Government on Monday and arrested former Minister of Health and his two assistants on charges of misappropriating funds. Health Minister Shaikh-ul Islamzadeh served under two previous governments and was a subject of attack by the Opposition.

The Government also arrested five business racketeers. They included a fruit importer, head of a trucking company, chief of the Teheran shop keepers syndicate, manager of a taxicab housing company and head of a rural stores corporation.

The official Rastakhiz newspaper said a large number of people, including businessmen, had been banned from leaving the country. It described them as "agents of corruption and discontent."

Meanwhile the Iranian Association of Jurists has condemned the declaration of martial law as illegal and unconstitutional and also condemned the killing of "innocent and defenceless people" in last Friday's shooting.

The Association called for an independent commission to find out who was responsible for the shootings and bring them to trial. It also called for the release of people arrested under martial law regulations in the past few days. Under the ... Martial Law Act, it said, military rule could not be declared without prior approval by Parliament except in exceptional cases such as foreign invasion.—AP and Reuter.
